Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 3, 2014

Dear parishioners,

The readings this weekend are all about God's generous, lavish love. In the reading from Isaiah we hear God saying to us, "Come. Drink. Delight." St. Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ—not anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine.... And the gospel reminds us that Jesus fed the five thousand with bread and fish—not just a little to tide them over. Everyone ate all they wanted, and there was enough left over to fill twelve wicker baskets.

All of that describes God's eagerness to show us love and to shower us with grace and blessing. Why don't we get it? What does it take for us to accept love? To spend our lives smiling at the love showered on us? What needs to be done to bask in this love?

How and when do you realize the love your parent or spouse or child has for you? Does it occur when you are busy and rushing around? Does this realization come in quiet moments when you take the time to relish what's going on?

My dad was a jack of all trades, a generous one! If I made a list of all the things he did for me through my life, it would take this whole bulletin. When I realized his love for me most clearly was when he was in the nursing home. He wasn't able to do for me anymore. Sometimes he'd be asleep when I came, and I'd just sit by his side and soak it all in. The thing that touched me the most was that he always gave me a big smile, either when I came or when he woke up, and I always knew he was glad to see me. I had a sure sense of being loved.

Maybe we need to just sit quiet and soak in all the goodness we experience—in good times and in bad—and let God smile at us and realize that God is always glad to see us. Let's pray we recognize God's lavish love.
