

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Fourth Sunday of Easter

April 17, 2016

Dear parishioners,

As I looked through the clipart trying to find a meaningful picture of the Good Shepherd, I settled on this one. Don't those sheep all look so happy to be with the Shepherd?! That's how we ought to be!

The gospel says: "My sheep hear my voice, I know them, and they follow me." If we really pay attention to those words, we will be happy sheep. How can we absorb the reality that God is so interested in us? Perhaps it's because we don't take enough time to contemplate it. We are so involved with our day to day world—which is really a very materialistic world—that things clog our spiritual insight and blind us to how great God is and how infinitesimally small we are.

The gospel says we are in Jesus' hand, and no one can take us out. We are in the Father's hand, and no one can take us out. Jesus and the Father are one. Now there's another deep, deep mystery that is beyond our comprehension and calls on real faith. We can merely bow before the mystery of the Trinity.

We are surrounded every minute of every day by love and care beyond our understanding from a God beyond our understanding. A God, nonetheless, who wants always to be with and near us. Just because we don't understand it doesn't make it nonexistent or untrue.

Let's thank our gracious God for the immense love given to us. Let's be really happy sheep that show the world we believe God's love!

Sister Carol

We extend our sympathy to Ruth Badertscher on the death of her husband Jim. May he rest in peace.

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Fourth Sunday of Easter

April 17, 2016

Thank you to all of you who stepped up to do the seventh corporal work of mercy—to bury the dead; that is, to all who brought food, set up, cooked, served, came to the funeral home, and celebrated the Mass of Resurrection. Thank you to all who came to the Family Promise training meeting. What a great showing! Thank you to Beth Yarger for coordinating the blood drive and to all who assisted her with registration and food.

The Year of Mercy This month of the Year of Mercy we direct our attention to the practice of the corporal works of mercy:

Feed the hungry.

Besides the food collection and monetary collection we suggest these ideas also:

- When you make a meal, double it and give it to a needy family.
- Make a donation to Catholic Relief Services or Food for the Poor.
- Do some research on local or world hunger.
- Try to buy only the food you need so as not to be wasteful.

Plan ahead If you are hoping to go to Booneville with us this year, mark your calendars now! We will begin sign-ups very soon. The dates are June 3-4. We leave near noon on Friday, June 3; work Saturday, June 4, and share Mass and a potluck with the parishioners of Holy Family Parish; and drive home on Sunday, June 5. The number is limited to 12.

Next Sunday, April 24, we will be celebrating First Holy Communion with 16 children at a 1:00 o'clock Mass: Madison Beasley, Jenna Downey, Isabella Ellerbrock, Emily Granger, Evan Grothouse, Allison Herrmann, Ethan Hoffman, Elizabeth Honse, Abbey Johnston, Elijah Jones, Nicholas Lovett, Ashley McLaughlin, Chase Meyer, Macy Schaadt, Ava Smallcombe, and Blair Utendorf. You are all invited to join us for this special occasion.

Save the date! By popular request the second annual parish picnic to celebrate being a parish, being around for 151 years, being generous on a regular basis.... The second annual parish picnic will be held Sunday, August 14, 2016, after the 10 o'clock Mass. If you'd be willing to help with the planning and the execution, talk to Lisa Welch.

Our Lady of Consolation Shrine, Carey, Ohio will offer a Mass for victims of cancer, their families, friends and caregivers on Friday, May 6th at 7:00 pm. We welcome all to come and pray together. Following Mass, visitors are invited to participate in special prayers for healing.

Let's face it! Not all of us are runners, but we still want to help out and give back to a great cause. Catholic Charities Diocese of Toledo needs volunteers to run our water stop during the Glass City Marathon on Sunday, April 24, 2016. Let's show we are the hands and feet of Christ! We'll cheer on and refuel the marathon runners, handing out water and Gatorade at the 11.5 mile mark, at Park and Orchard in Ottawa Hills.
