

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 26, 2014

Dear parishioners,

So we have the new bishop we have been hoping and waiting for. It's a time of joy. It's a time of change. In a time of change we sometimes balk at the change by complaining about the person in charge.

Two things we are emphasizing in our work with my religious community are: 1) "There should be no complaining without solution-ing," and 2) "Leaders are chosen to do a particular task for us, but we are all in it together so stay in the conversation and do your part." Both are great advice. Both are difficult to do because they are the high road. It's much easier to complain or walk away than to invest ourselves. I know how often I fail to take the high ground.

So you and I are at the place where we can lend our support to Bishop Thomas to help him do the best job he can for the Diocese of Toledo. We'll do that best by investing ourselves in St. Mary's Parish for which he has the next level of responsibility. We can each put ourselves into the work of the parish by doing what we can to be a parish, to promote the kingdom, to stay in the conversation even when it's hard, to put our energy into solution-ing.

I always appreciate the way in which you offer your skills and talents, your time and your finances to strengthening the parish. I trust in your generosity to continue that. And I trust that when we can, we will make ourselves available to promote the work of the diocese.

Let's pray for our new bishop, Bishop Daniel Thomas.

Respect Life Month – Death Penalty Advocacy

October is known as Respect Life month in our Catholic Church to honor the dignity of life from conception to natural death. Please consider joining the advocacy effort of Ohioans to Stop Executions (OTSE) to create legislation to implement recommendations submitted earlier in 2014 by the Ohio Supreme Court Task Force on the administration of Ohio's use of the death penalty. You can 'register' your voice by contacting OTSE at www.otse.org AND you can financially support the advocacy effort by donating in any amount to the $10,000 matching fund campaign taking place right now. More information about the recommendations of the task force, registering your voice, providing financial support, and the "Voices of Experience" panel can be found on the OTSE website.

In celebration of National Adoption Month, Catholic Charities invites all members of the adoption triad – adoptees, adoptive parents, and birth mothers – to celebrate Mass and receive a special blessing at Rosary Cathedral in Toledo at 4 p.m., Saturday, November 15.
